

Welcome to the State Championships

The final week of the 2014 OHSAA football season has arrived and 14 teams have earned the right to play for a state championship in Ohio Stadium. After 723 teams began the season in August and 224 earned playoff berths, these 14 teams have advanced through four weeks of the playoffs and will now end their season in Ohio Stadium, which is hosting the championships for the first time since 1989.

Championship Games Return to Ohio Stadium

Ohio Stadium hosted 47 OHSAA playoff games from 1972-1989, with 37 of those being state championship games. When natural grass was installed in Ohio Stadium in 1990, the OHSAA was asked to move its football state championship games to another location. The OHSAA found a home in Stark County, with Canton Fawcett Stadium and Massillon Paul Brown Tiger Stadium sharing the state championship games for the last 24 years. When FieldTurf was installed in Ohio Stadium in 2008, the conversation began to have the games return to the famous “Horseshoe” stadium. The state championship games in 2014 and 2015 will be hosted in Ohio Stadium. The location of the finals after 2015 has not yet been determined. Please see pages 2, 3 and 5 for more information and record attendance information.

Noting the State Finalists

Three of the 2014 state finalists previously played state championship games in Ohio Stadium, including Lakewood St. Edward, Canton Central Catholic and Minster.

Three defending state champions are back to defend their title, including Coldwater (Div. V), Kirtland (Div. VI) and Maria Stein Marion Local (Div. VII). Coldwater is playing in the state championship game for the sixth straight season (titles in 2012 and 2013). Kirtland (two titles in a three-year span) and Marion Local (three-time defending state champ) are playing in the state championship game for the fourth straight season. Marion Local has won 19 straight playoff games (record is 23 by Cle. St. Ignatius from 1991-96).

In Div. II, Cincinnati LaSalle hadn't won a playoff game before this season. LaSalle joins Athens in Div. III as schools that won their first regional championship this season and are in the state championship games for the first time.

All 14 finalists were ranked in the Top 10 of the final Associated Press regular-season poll. Four poll champs will now try to win a state title on the field, including Kettering Archbishop Alter (Div. IV), Canton Central Catholic (Div. V), Kirtland (Div. VI) and Marion Local (Div. VII). There is one match-up of No. 1 vs. No. 2 ranked teams, that coming in Div. V (Canton Central Catholic vs. Coldwater).

The 14 state finalists had the following seeds when the playoffs began: No. 1 (7), No. 2 (2), No. 3 (2), No. 4 (2) and No. 5 (1, Huber Heights Wayne).

The Div. I state final is a rematch of the 2010 championship game, won by Lakewood St. Edward 35-28.

MAC Builds on Success

The highly successful Midwest Athletic Conference has three league members in the state championships, including Coldwater in Div. V, Minster in Div. VI and Maria Stein Marion Local in Div. VII. (The MAC has won two state championships in the same season five times, but never three titles.) Marion Local, Coldwater and Delphos St. John's are among Ohio's all-time best playoff teams (see page 5). The MAC is now 31-7 in state semifinal games against non-MAC schools. The MAC is now 47-13 against non-MAC schools in OHSAA regional championship games. The MAC went 5-1 in the first round of the playoffs and is now 56-2 in first round playoff games against non-MAC schools since the playoffs expanded to eight qualifiers per region in 1999. (The two losses include a Versailles loss to Lima Central Catholic in 2005 and a Delphos St. John's loss to Arlington in 2014.) The MAC currently owns 107 various OHSAA state championships.
