Welcome to the 2015 State Wrestling Championships

A great deal of information – both in the official program and in this media guide – is available to each of you covering the tournament. Besides the charts that are in this guide, there are two other main sources of information available for your use.

At last weekend's District competition, each state qualifier was given a media form to fill out. While not all were returned, a vast majority were. Should you need to use these forms, please contact one of the OHSAA representatives along media row.

The other resource available is the complete list of every state placer from 1938-2014. The last three years (2012, 2013 and 2014) state placers can be found in this media guide. Earlier state placers are available from one of the OHSAA assistants working on media row. If you know of any corrections, please let us know.

Note that wrestlers are listed by the school name at the time they attended (i.e. Kettering Fairmont East/West). However, if the school changed mailing addresses (i.e. Dayton Wayne to Huber Heights Wayne) then the school is listed by its new location. Schools that have added to their name, because of an additional school being built (i.e. Pickerington Central/North) are listed according to what the school is currently called.

Ohio Wrestling Officials Hall of Fame

Jack Beard, Urbana

Jack is a retired school teacher and Veteran of The United States Marine Corps. He knows that without the support and love of his wonderful wife of 39 years, Margaret, and his family this would not have been possible. Jack and Margaret have three great sons John, Jeff, and Josh; three beautiful grandkids Jessa, Alexa, and Michael; and two awesome daughter-in-laws Shannan and Hope. Jack has been involved in wrestling since 1969 as a competitor, coach, and referee thanks to Michael Nedeff the Tecumseh High School wrestling coach who asked a 98 pound weakling to be a member of his team. Coach Nedeff passed away last summer but his love of wrestling will continue forward and the life lessons he taught were instrumental in shaping the person he is today. Jack was co-captain and most outstanding wrestler at Tecumseh, a member of the first-ever wrestling team at Wright State University, and a two-time All-Marine wrestler and silver medalist at the 1978 Inner-Service tournament. As a coach at Upper Sandusky High School and Urbana High School he had a record of 101 wins and 39 losses and coached multiple state qualifiers, placers and one OHSAA State Champion, Rick Young. Jack is a member of the Greater Miami Valley Wrestling Association Hall of Fame. Jack would also like to recognize and thank, Stamat Bulugaris, his coach at Wright State University, for being such a great male role-model, wrestling coach, officiating mentor, and ambassador for our great sport of wrestling.

It All Started With Casey

By Daniel L. Cutcher

When Casey Fredericks was hired as wrestling coach at The Ohio State University in the early 1930's, only 4 schools outside of Cleveland had wrestling programs. These included Upper Arlington, Worthington, Bridgeport and Shadyside. He quickly realized the need to develop the sport from the ground up, so he enlisted help from many sources, including professional wrestling promoters, the OHSAA and local high schools, talking to football coaches, principals and parents groups. Casey constantly put on demonstrations, often loaning mats and other gear.

It quickly became apparent there was a need for a professional crew of people to make sure everyone played fair but at the time there were no rules. Everyone had different ideas of what scoring was. Most meets were officiated by the coaches.

Casey turned to his assistant coach, A.J."Tony" Montonaro, to help with this task. Tony began to travel throughout Ohio with his developed notebook of rules and taught these rules and mechanics to official groups.

In 1965 the NCAA (college) and NFHS (high school) national associations decided it was time to have one set of rules. They invited Tony to Chicago for a meeting and used his notebook as the basis for the first national rulebook in 1966.

In the early 70's Tony retired and Vince Matteucci and Stamatis Bulgaris replaced him. Stamatis went back to coaching in the late 70's and Lyle Smith took over as rules interpreter.

Vince retired in 2011 and Lyle followed in 2013, leaving Dick Loewenstine, Ray Anthony, and Jim Vreeland to carry on the task of developing officials and promoting consistency throughout the state.
