Ohio High School Conferences

As of August 2019, there are 77 conferences in the state of Ohio, in addition to 25 independent schools. There are 21 conferences that have divisional breakdowns. Some schools are members of more than one conference, based on sport. Those respective schools’ information will appear in both conference listings. The parentheses following the school name represents the county the school is located in. Please email links to conference websites and changes to Tim Stried at tstried@ohsaa.org.
